 Sunday Mary Lou Egan
 February 17 10 am-2:30 pm

Socks: Toe Up $50
 Advanced Beginning 4 sessions
 Make a pair of warm winter socks and learn techniques with Jean. These socks have a tricky cat-on, which fast becomes a finished toe. The toe-up method is a great way to knit socks when you're short on yarn – you can easily change the cuff length. The fit is good too.
 Saturdays Jean Christensen
 January 19, 26; February 2, 9 1-3:30 pm

Two Color Knitting: Fair Isle Hat $38
 Experienced Advanced Beginning 3 sessions
 Learn how to knit with two colors as you design your own fair-isle hat. Experience with either Continental-style or American-style knitting is fine. You will learn two-handed color knitting.

Mondays Sherry Enzler
March 10, 17, 31 6-8:30 pm

Hemlock Ring Throw $38
Advanced Beginning-Intermediate 3 sessions
The Hemlock Ring Throw links us to the past in a fun and practical way. Knit this huge vintage lace doily in heavyweight wool to create a warm accent for your home. It knits up quickly so it makes a wonderful gift. Download the free pattern at Susan and Sally Rainey's blog The Rainey Sisters.
Mondays Susan Rainey
February 4, 11; March 3 6-8:30 pm

Knit Bits $38
Advanced Beginning 3 sessions
This is a class for those who need a comfortable "breast" knitted in any size. Knit with a friendly group of women who are cancer survivors or close to one. To learn more about Knit Bits visit www.titbits.ca.
Mondays Kathy Vadnais
January 7, 14, 21 1-3:30 pm

Jean's Baby Sweaters $50
Advanced Beginning 4 sessions
Pick one of Jean's three seamless baby sweater patterns and learn plenty of techniques while knitting a cute and useful project.
Saturdays Jean Christensen
January 26; February 2, 9, 16 10 am-12:30 pm

Knit the Book: Knitting Lace Triangles $50
Advanced Beginning 4 sessions
Using this book by Evelyn A. Clark, students can choose one of four beautiful lace patterns that can be used by newer lace knitters, or modified by the more experienced to create their own pattern. Students will learn how to read charts, create your own pattern outline, seamlessly join yarns (a real issue with lace shawls), work four different cast-ons, and block the finished project. The shawls can be made in any yarn from lace weight to worsted. The books appendix gives yarn yardage for all weights and sizes.
Mondays Mary Lou Egan
February 18, 25; March 10, 17 6-8:30 pm

Lace Baby Sweater $50
Advanced Beginning 4 sessions
Mary Lou has a new lace baby sweater design that features Yarni yarn. In this class you will learn to read charts and incorporate lace into garment shaping.

Knit a pair of two-colored mittens and gain experience knitting from a chart
Sundays Jess Bandelin
January 20, 27; February 3, 10 1-3:30 pm

Roslin Fair Isle Hoodie $75
Intermediate 6 sessions
The Roslin Fair Isle Hoodie was designed by The Rainey Sisters as an introduction to fair isle knitting. The hallmark of this design is that it makes use of both DK and jumperweight Jamieson wool as it transitions from the body to the fair isle band. The pattern is free from The Rainey Sisters blog and is suitable for the intermediate knitter who is seeking a challenge.
Sundays Susan Rainey
February 10, 17; March 2, 16; April 6, 20 1-3:30 pm

Yummy Mittens $50
Advanced Beginning 4 sessions
Knit a pair of extra warm "double" mittens with this Beth Brown-Reinsel pattern. The first mitten is cast on using a provisional cast-on and then knit up. When done, "unzip" the cast-on and start the second mitten.
Tuesdays Sarah Rye
January 29; February 5, 12, 19 6-8:30 pm

FELTED PROJECTS

Embellish Your Woolly Eggs $15
Advanced Beginning 1 session
Come and learn to embellish your already felted Woolly Eggs with embroidery, beading and needle felting with the designer herself, Marie Mayhew.
Saturday Marie Mayhew
